KEY SOCIETY IMPACTS

INFLUENCING STATE AND FEDERAL HEALTH CARE POLICIES

- Advocated at the state and federal levels to reduce the prior authorization burden
- Influenced state agencies to successfully reduce the length of licensure application and credentialing processes
- Promoted the start of regulatory, legislative, and system changes to address physician burnout

PREPARING PHYSICIAN LEADERS FOR NEW HEALTH CARE PARADIGMS

- Customized CME to meet your resident and physician skill gap needs
- New CME and podcasts addressing burnout, system redesign, and organizational transformation
- Enhancing clinician patient care and professional growth through NEJM Group products and services

ADVANCING PUBLIC HEALTH ADVOCACY AND EDUCATION

- Resources on opioid prescribing, vaping, food insecurity, and firearm safety
- Annual Public Health Leadership Forum
- Education on social determinants of health, diversity, health equity, and inclusion

PROVIDING PRACTICE MANAGEMENT AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

- Claims consultation with payers
- Physician helpline for issues related to licensure, credentialing, retirement, telehealth, and attorney referrals
- Practice management support for sustainability and financial success

GIVING BACK

- $100,000+ in scholarships and low-cost student loans to support the next generation of physicians
- Financial support for our most vulnerable populations through the MMS and Alliance Charitable Foundation
- Support for Physician Health Services (PHS) dedicated to improving the health, well-being, and effectiveness of physicians and medical students while promoting patient safety

What Our Group Members Say

“Atrius Health invests in an MMS group membership to benefit our community and our physicians. This is a time of rapid change in health care, and physicians need to play a leadership role in the change. . . . Additionally, at a time when physician burnout is a national issue, Physician Health Services is a particularly helpful resource.”

— Steven Strongwater, MD, president and CEO, Atrius Health
